

Female World Sport School Challenge

Banquet: Saturday, February 2, 2019

Rod Black

Keynote Speaker

Rod Black, Sportscaster, CTV and TSN

"My whole life is pretty much about sports. It's not a job. It's not a hobby. It's a passion."

Rod Black's knowledge, versatility and enthusiasm have earned him a reputation as one of Canada's most recognized and distinguished sportscasters.

In his 36 years as a sports journalist, Black has been involved with a variety of different events and competitions, fitting into each role with ease. Black's extensive sports resume includes play-by-play announcing on TSN for CFL football, Blue Jays Baseball, NHL hockey, PGA Tour golf, World Championship boxing, ATP and WTA tennis, International figure skating as well as hosting duties on TSN for the Toronto Raptors, the NBA Finals, the CFL Draft, the Masters, the World Hockey Championship, the Canadian Open, the Queen's Plate, and of course the Summer and Winter Olympics.

"I'm the luckiest guy in the world", says Rod. "I live, work and play in the toy department of life. Best of all, I understand that even though sport is only about games – sport is also about life lessons. Learning to win, learning to fail but mostly learning about yourself and realizing that anything is truly possible."
